

HAVE YOU HUGGED YOUR CSSD TECHNICIAN TODAY?

As the leading organization dedicated to the CSSD profession, the International Association of Healthcare Central Service Materiel Management (IAHCSMM) is proud to support these professionals with education and encouragement to help meet their challenges every day of the year. To help CSSDs celebrate, IAHCSMM is pleased to announce the "Have You Hugged Your CSSD Technician" collection!

The collection includes scrub tops and surgical/scrub caps that will enhance your style and comfort—allowing you to look and feel better, even during work's most challenging moments. Also included in the collection are over-sized magnets and clips that will cleverly draw attention to important departmental notices or upcoming events.

Though each item in the "Hug" collection is designed for on-the-job use, the style blends a creative and uplifting message that supports the CSSD. Be the envy of your department by purchasing these items yourself or, perhaps, giving them as gifts to show pride in your employees or co-workers. All items are available for immediate shipping.
