Online Advertising Rate Sheet

Welcome to the official website of the International Association of Healthcare Central Service Materiel Management (IAHCSMM).

Through IAHCSMM's organized educational opportunities and dedicated support services, members have access to the most comprehensive, industry-leading professional development tools available. Couple that with a helpful and knowledgeable member services team whose primary goal is to put members on the path to quality and professional excellence (and help keep them there), and it becomes clear that IAHCSMM membership is perhaps the best career decision a CS professional can make.

It's that level of commitment – and so much more – that's made IAHCSMM the premier association for Central Service and Sterile Processing professionals for more than 50 years.
