

Crosstex/SPSmedical Appoints New Account Managers

RUSH NY DECEMBER 2015 – Crosstex/SPSmedical announced today that Fred Alston and Tom Restuccia have joined the company's sales team to further develop its growing portfolio of regional and national accounts.

Fred Alston comes to Crosstex/SPSmedical with over 21 years of experience in healthcare, having spent the last several years at Getinge where Fred provided CSSD support as a senior service technician, service branch manager, consumables specialist and sales account manager. As well as being a Certified Sterile Processing Department Technician, Fred sits on several AAMI committees and works with facilities around the country troubleshooting washing and sterilizing challenges and consultative assistance in interpreting and implementing AAMI and other standards recommendations working to improve patient outcomes.

Tom Restuccia joins Crosstex/SPSmedical from Metrex, a Danaher Company, to continue Crosstex/SPSmedical's recent success in the area of cleaning and high-level disinfection. Tom comments, "I am excited to start a new challenge within Crosstex/SPSmedical and look forward to working with the team to further expand their already extensive product and service suite in regional and national accounts. I am fortunate to be joining such a respected company that prides itself on top quality and excellent customer service."

John Sullivan, Director of Sales said, "Both Fred and Tom's wealth of experience and industry knowledge have already made them key additions to the Crosstex/SPSmedical family. We view their appointments as a sign of our commitment to being a leading company in our industry. Our new innovations and the increasing demand from our customers led us to look for multiple additions to our team who will fit in with our ethos of innovation and exceptional service. It is very fortunate that we were able to find someone of Fred and Tom's caliber to fulfill these positions. I'm confident that they will play a key role in providing and implementing high quality solutions for our clients."
